Trip Itinerary

December 9: Depart from the USA. Upon arrival in Mexico City you will be met by your tour guide and transported to your hotel. Visit the Museum around the Basilica, Tepeyac Hill, Capilla del Cerrito, Tepeyac Garden, and the Chapel of the Indians. Dinner and overnight in Mexico City.

December 10: After breakfast we will head to the northern part of Mexico City to Tlatelolco. We will visit the Three Culture Square, where the XVI Century Parish of Santiago Tlatelolco is located. It is the first catholic church of the New Continent dedicated to St. James, the patron saint of the Spanish people. Then we will drive outside Mexico City to visit Teotihuacan, a UNESCO world heritage archaeological zone, exploring the ruins of the Pyramids of the Sun and the Moon and the Aztec Temple of Tlaloc and Quetzalcoatl. Then we will visit a local shop of arts and crafts and enjoy lunch. On the way back to the hotel, we will stop at Acolman Agustinian ex-convent and church, for a tour of the monastery. Dinner and overnight in Mexico City.

December 11: Following breakfast, we will leave Mexico City for a spectacular ride through the mountains of Tlaxcala to Ocotlan, the "place of the burning oak", where in 1531, the Blessed Virgin appeared to Juan Diego Bernadino. The Blessed Virgin Mary burned an image of her perfections into the trunk of an old oak tree. Also we will visit The Franciscan convent of Our Lady of Assumption, known as the Cathedral of Tlaxcala today. It is one of a kind for having the bell tower apart from the convent. The interior still keeps a beautiful wooden coffered ceiling in a Mudejar style. After lunch in Tlaxcala we continue on to Puebla where we will enjoy a tour that includes the Cathedral of Puebla and the magnificent Chapel of Our Lady of the Rosary, with its most famous scalloped gold leaf walls and ceilings; and St. Dominic's Church. Return for dinner and overnight in Mexico.

December 12: FEAST OF OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE. CELEBRATIONS ALL DAY AND TIME FOR DEVOTION. Dinner and overnight in Mexico City.

December 13: Fly back home.
